

On-site High Adventure

COPE Challenging Outdoor Personal Experience

Camp Rainey Mountain offers one half-day sessions of COPE this year! Come find out what COPE is all about. Challenging activities help older Scouts understand teamwork, confidence building, challenge by choice, leadership, and initiative. Participants will get a full tour of Challenge Valley as they visit different sites including the Low Course and the High Course. The possibilities are seemingly endless! This course is managed by a BSA National Camping School Certified COPE Director and staffed by a highly qualified and trained group of adult Scouts.

www.nega-highadventure.com

Who can participate?

Scouts must be 14 years old or 13 and completed the 8th grade, and must have attained First Class Rank or higher to participate. This activity is very strenuous and requires completion of certain challenging skills; therefore, the High Adventure Director or Camp Director reserves the right to refuse any participant who in their opinion is not physically capable or mature enough to complete the course. There is a strict limit of 20 participants. Due to the strict limitations in the number of participants allowed, ADULTS may observe but may not participate in this program unless space is available. If space is available, adults must pay the High Adventure fee associated with this activity.

Be Prepared!

Participants will need to bring the following gear to camp with them:

- Hydration system or two water bottles
- Boots or sneakers
- Leather work gloves
- Insect repellent Non-aerosol
- Bandana
- Sunglasses
- Annual Health and Medical Record Form # 680-001 (Click here for current form)

The camp will provide other necessary equipment such as helmets, ropes, harnesses, and hardware. Personal helmets, ropes, harnesses, and hardware May Not be used during this course. Additional Cost:

$40 for all participants

In addition to regular camper fees

